Andrew McAfee

Principal Research Scientist

MIT Sloan School of Management

Naples Beach Hotel, River of Grass Ballroom

Friday, March 4, 2016

Andrew McAfee a principal research scientist at the MIT Sloan School of Management and co-founder of its Initiative on the Digital Economy. His research investigates how information technology changes the way companies perform, organize themselves and compete. At a higher level, his work also focuses on how computerization affects competition, society, the economy and the workforce. In addition to having numerous papers published, Professor McAfee also writes a widely read blog, which is at times one of the 10,000 most popular in the world. He is the author or co-author of more than 100 articles, case studies and other materials for students and teachers of technology.

Prior to joining MIT Sloan, McAfee was a professor at Harvard Business School. He has also served as a fellow at the Berkman Center for Internet and Society at Harvard Law School. McAfee received his doctorate from Harvard Business School, and completed two Master of Science and two Bachelor of Science degrees at MIT. He speaks frequently to both academic and industry audiences, and has taught in executive education programs around the world.

Inge G. Thulin

Chairman of the Board, President and CEO

3M Company

Naples Beach Hotel, Everglades Dining Room

Friday, March 18, 2016

Inge G. Thulin, 61, was named president and chief executive officer of 3M Company in February of 2012. He was named Chairman of 3M's Board of Directors in May of 2012.

A 35-year veteran of 3M, he served as Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer of 3M since May of 2011, after having served as Executive Vice President, 3M International Operations since 2003. Mr. Thulin joined 3M Sweden in 1979, working in sales and marketing, and subsequently assumed levels of greater responsibility.

With hands-on experience building businesses in both developed and developing economies, Mr. Thulin's grasp of societal trends is impressive. For example, his business background and Nordic upbringing helped shape his view that the global trend toward sustainability presents tremendous opportunity for 3M to both improve the environment, and 3M's business performance, simultaneously.

Mr. Thulin is known for emphasizing teamwork, a concept he learned to value as a young hockey player in one of Sweden's top leagues. He is known for his quick wit and accessibility, for focus and clarity, and for his uncanny ability to effectively prioritize.

A native of Malmo, Sweden, Mr. Thulin is an outdoor enthusiast who enjoys skiing, skating and hiking. He and his wife Helene are citizens of the United States, and reside in the Twin Cities.
