NAPLES BEACH HOTEL AND GOLF CLUB

The members of the Board of the Forum Club want to express their appreciation to the Naples Beach Hotel and Golf Club for hosting us since the Club's inception in 1985. One of the founding members of the Club was the former Henry B. Watkins, Jr., whose family continues today in the tradition of providing first class services and amenities to their guests. The hotel staff has always been supportive of the needs of the Forum Club.

We continue to be asked why we stay at the Naples Beach Hotel when there are larger venues available that could accommodate more Forum Club guests. There are three answers. First and foremost is that fact that no other hotel in Naples will guarantee us the dates over 12 months in advance, which is when we begin to invite our speakers. This early guarantee of dates is critical to our success. Secondly, the cost in some cases for our luncheon package would more than double, and often requires mandatory valet parking fees. Thirdly, the central location provides the most convenience for our members.

Finally, however, it comes down to our mission statement to "provide a congenial meeting atmosphere for members." And, whenever possible, in the absence of convention business which fills the hotel rooms, we are offered the larger River of Grass Ballroom. We often are given only 60 days notice of this availability, and occasionally less time, but we always appreciate the opportunity to allow our members to invite more guests and to welcome the applicants on the Wait List at that time.
