Senator John Cornyn was elected to the United States Senate from Texas in 2002. In 2014, Texans overwhelmingly re-elected him for his third term. A San Antonio native, he has been a powerful voice for Texas and conservation values in Washington.

Sen. Cornyn serves on the Select Committee on Intelligence, the Committee on Finance and the Committee on the Judiciary as well as serving as the Majority Whip. He has committed himself to strengthening our national defense, securing our borders and repairing our broken immigration system. He has been a tireless advocate for veterans and their families. He also believes in strengthening the economy by keeping taxes low, reducing federal spending and fighting job-killing regulations.

Prior to his time in the Senate, he served the people of Texas as a district judge, later as a member of the Texas Supreme Court and as Texas Attorney General. He received his undergraduate degree from Trinity University, his law degree from St. Mary's School of Law and his LLM from the University of Virginia Law School.

Sen. Cornyn married his wife Sandy in 1979, and they have two grown daughters.
